Note on Wet Dhoop

Our Wet Dhoop Sticks are crafted with devotion, purity, and a deep respect for traditional Indian rituals. Made from the finest natural herbs, resins, wood powders, and essential oils, each stick embodies the authentic essence of ancient aromatic practices.

Unlike dry incense, wet dhoop offers a softer texture and a richer, more intense fragrance, creating a long-lasting, calming, and spiritually uplifting atmosphere.

These sticks are free from harmful chemicals and artificial additives, making them safe for daily puja, meditation, and spiritual practices.

We believe that true fragrance should not only fill your space but also purify the mind and soul — transforming your environment into a sacred sanctuary of peace and positivity.
